

The Confederacy of Annihilation for dummies
By: Kaiser Godfather I

Hello my name is {your real name} I am currently a {your rank in the Clan} I have been in the Confederacy of Annihilation for {number of months}. This is the Confederacy of Annihilation for dummies video. I have been given the honor of making this video for the clan by the Kaiser. The Kaiser is the leader of the Confederacy of Annihilation. The Kaiser holds to position of Head of State and the Kaiser of the Confederacy of Annihilation. The Confederacy of Annihilation is a monarchy based clan. A monarchy is a form of government in which sovereignty is embodied in a single individual, in our case the Kaiser. The Kaiser is an absolute monarch, ruling the clan absolutely; however there is a Parliament session held every Monday around six o'clock. In these sessions the generals of each regiment meet with the Kaiser to discuss things that affect the clan, from these sessions decisions are made to lead the clan. The Confederacy of Annihilation is made up of Divisions. Inside the Divisions there are Regiments. Regiments are made up of ten people each. There are around four ranks in the Regiments. Grunts who are the lowest ranks in the clan, and do all of the dirty work in the clan. Then there are Captains who are the third leaders of the Regiments, and the basic enforcers of will in each Regiment. Then there are Majors, who are future leaders, Majors are second in charge of the Regiments. Majors help to plan events and to organise tanning and clan battles. Eventually Majors will either get promoted to Generals and start their own Regiments, or they will take over a Regiment whose General has either got promoted or fired. Generals are the highest ranks in each Regiment. The General makes plans for events and other activities and also relays information's about the Regiments activities to the Chancellor. The Chancellor is tied for the second highest position in the clan. The Office of the Chancellor is the only position in the Confederacy of Annihilation that is an elected position. The Chancellor is responsible for helping the Kaiser to lead the Confederacy. And to keep the Regiment Generals under control and to help the Regiment Generals plan events and help them with anything else they might need. The Chancellor is also responsible to help the Kaiser in the promotion of Regiments to Elite Regiments. Elite Regiments are Regiments that have won ten plus clan battles, in which the majority of our team consisted of those Regiments members. When they become an Elite Regiment the General get the glorified position of Marshal. When someone is recruited into the Confederacy of Annihilation they must complete cretin tasks. The tasks are; they must be told there Regiment General, what Regiment there are going in and there rank in the clan and then they must put that information on their bios. Then they must go on the Confederate website and read up on all of the rules and ranks. It also helps if they read everything else on the website. They also must change their emblem and armour colours. They also need to go to the Clans YouTube and add the clans YouTube as a contact and subscribe to the channel. In the Confederacy of Annihilation we are looking for members that are mature, active and fun to play with. However everyone can join the Confederacy of Annihilation as long as they do not have any people who are; disliked by the Confederacy of Annihilation, Banned from the Confederacy of Annihilation, Have been kicked form the Confederacy of Annihilation or have been excommunicated from the Confederacy of Annihilation. This has been a small introduction into the Confederacy of Annihilation. This addition was written by Kaiser Godfather I and spoken by {insert your GT}
